A CHRISTIAN GUIDE TO HANDLING OUR CONFLICTS

ROBERT D. JONES

Conflict

1. Dependency
2. Blame
3. Anger

Romans 5:8-11

For if while we were enemies we were reconciled to God by the death of his Son, much more, now that we are reconciled, shall we be saved by his life. More than that, we also rejoice in God through our Lord Jesus Christ, through whom we have now received reconciliation.

I. What about YOU?

II. What about THEM?

III. What about God?

What about YOU?

Matthew 7:3-5

Why do you see the speck that is in your brother's eye, but do not notice the log that is in your own eye? Or how can you say to your brother, 'Let me take the speck out of your eye,' when there is the log in your own eye? brother's eye.

Matthew 7:1-5

You hypocrite, first take the log out of your own eye, and then you will see clearly to take the speck out of your brother's eye.

James 4:1-3

What causes quarrels and what causes fights among you? Is it not this, that your passions are at war within you? You desire and do not have, so you murder. You covet and cannot obtain, so you fight and quarrel.

James 4:1-3

You do not have, because you do not ask.
You ask and do not receive, because you ask wrongly, to spend it on your passions.

1 Timothy 1:15

Here is a true statement that should be accepted without question: Christ Jesus came into the world to save sinners, and I am the worst of them.

*Pursuing Peace: A Christian
Guide to Handling Conflict*

"Only by owning 100 percent responsibility for my sin—even if I (arrogantly) think my sin is comparatively only 1 percent of the conflict—will I deal properly with my planks in God-pleasing ways. I must give 100 percent attention to my 1 percent contribution."

Matthew 7:1-5

You hypocrite, first take the log out of your own eye, and then you will see clearly to take the speck out of your brother's eye.

Matthew 5:23-25

So if you are offering your gift at the altar and there remember that your brother has something against you, leave your gift there before the altar and GO. First be reconciled to your brother, and then come and offer your gift.

Matthew 18:15-16

“If your brother sins against you, go and tell him his fault, between you and him alone. If he listens to you, you have gained your brother. But if he does not listen, take one or two others along with you, that every charge may be established by the evidence of two or three witnesses.

Matthew 5:23-25

So if you are offering your gift at the altar and there remember that your brother has something against you, leave your gift there before the altar and GO. First be reconciled to your brother, and then come and offer your gift.

Matthew 18:15-16

“If your brother sins against you, go and tell him his fault, between you and him alone. If he listens to you, you have gained your brother. But if he does not listen, take one or two others along with you, that every charge may be established by the evidence of two or three witnesses.
